90 Day Spiritual Challenge

"... discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness; for bodily discipline is only of little profit, but godliness is profitable for all things, since it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come." 1 Timothy 4:7-8

START: January 1, 2020 or _____/_____/______ END: March 30, 2020 or _____/_____/______

“For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you have need again for someone to teach you the elementary principles of the oracles of God, and you have come to need milk and not solid food. For everyone who partakes only of milk is not accustomed to the word of righteousness, for he is an infant. But solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to discern good and evil.” Hebrews 5:12-14

Much like our physical well-being depends on our applying disciplines that ensure its health so does our spiritual well-being. Good health be it physical, mental or spiritual is not a condition accidentally obtained it is intentionally developed as we apply the appropriate behaviors and habits that are proven to provide good health. This 90-day challenge is designed to assist you in establishing a life-style change of behaviors and habits that will continue to develop your spiritual health. This manual is an excellent tool to help you learn and execute the disciplines of a growing, thriving life of a new person in Christ.

Getting Started:

As with any personal development plan it is important that you establish some personal goals. What goals do you want to set for yourself in this 90 DSC? It may be to read the bible everyday, it may be to pray every day, it may to be more intentional about sharing your faith, etc. There can be any number of personal goals you have as it pertains to your spiritual growth. Take a moment to complete the goal list below so that you can measure your success during the 90 DSC.

Bible Study goals:
1. __________________________________________________
2. __________________________________________________
3. __________________________________________________

Personal Prayer goals:
1. __________________________________________________
2. __________________________________________________
3. __________________________________________________

Bible Application goals: (i.e., serving in a ministry, tithing, attending corporate church services and/or small groups, etc.)
1. __________________________________________________
2. __________________________________________________
3. __________________________________________________

Personal Outreach goals: (sharing your faith, testimony and lessons with others.)
1. __________________________________________________
2. __________________________________________________
3. __________________________________________________

Now that you have determined what your goals are lets help you get started on this journey of growth and maturity as a disciple of Jesus Christ. Provided below are the necessary steps that we will take together to ensure you develop good spiritual health.

Personal Evaluation:
"If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1John 1:9

Each day should start with personal evaluation. Take some time to let the Holy Spirit in you bring awareness to areas of your heart and life that need to be submitted to the process of redevelopment by God. It’s critical that in this step you are honest with yourself. Once you have been made aware of negative areas of your heart and life ask the Father to forgive you. This is the first step in allowing change in that area of your life. The goal is not simply to acknowledge it but begin the process of changing it in your life. In this book we have provided for you 90 pages one for each day of your challenge to assist you in the steps you will need to take for quality spiritual development and growth.

Personal Daily Devotion:
“This I say for your own benefit; not to put a restraint upon you, but to promote what is appropriate and to secure undistracted devotion to the Lord.” 1Corinthians 7:35

Personal daily devotion requires the execution of two particular exercises; prayer and bible study.

- Prayer: “rejoicing in hope, persevering in tribulation, devoted to prayer...” Romans 12:12
  Developing a healthy prayer life requires us to understand how to pray correctly.
  1. Pray first with “Thanksgiving”. (Philippians 4:6, Colossians 4:2)
  2. Present God with your requests. (Philippians 4:6, James 4:2-3)

- Study of the word: “like newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the word, so that by it you may grow in respect to salvation...” 1Peter 2:2
  Many of us do not acquire a daily discipline of studying scripture because we are intimidated by it. We see all the pages, chapters, verses and we do not know where to start and most of us have a difficult time understanding what we are reading. Here are a few simple steps to help you develop quality bible study time.
  1. Reflection: (2Timothy 3:16) Ask yourself how the scriptures you are reading are meant to instruct you, teach you, correct you and train you in righteousness.
  2. Meditation: (Psalm 119:15) Take some time to really focus on what you have read and let it sink deep into your heart and mind. Think about how the precepts, truths and virtues of God can be recognized in your life over the past and how it will set the course of your life in the decisions you make moving forward.

3. Application: (James 1:22) Reflection and meditation serve no purpose without the application of what you have learned. Here is where you begin to evaluate in what areas of your life you may apply what you’ve read and learned. Remember the promises of God for your life are activated by the application of God’s word in our life.

Self-Reflection:

Service to Others:
“from whom the whole body, being fitted and held together by what every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.” Ephesians 4:16

We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brethren, as is only fitting, because your faith is greatly enlarged, and the love of each one of you toward one another grows ever greater…” 2Thes 1:3
The command we were given as disciples of Christ is to love one another as He loves us. This command is impossible to fulfill without demonstration. The demonstration of this command is recognized in how we deliberately serve one another. It takes effort, time and sacrifice on our part to apply the qualities of our gifts, abilities, talents, skills and resources to serve others. One way to get started is by simply serving in the household of God in areas needing your service. It can be greeting people as they come to a gathering, working with children, singing or playing on the worship team, following up with those who visited or made commitments to Christ, etc. There are all kinds of opportunities to serve. If you are unaware of what they are simply schedule a time with your pastor or someone in church leadership to discuss with them your interests, talents or skills to see where a good initial fit for you would be.

Self-Reflection:

In what way do you intentionally and regularly serve others?

Stewardship of Resources:

“In this case, moreover, it is required of stewards that one be found trustworthy.” 1Corinthians 4:2

There are several divine resources God has entrusted to mankind that are meant to produce eternal results according to His will but we have the choice to use these resources to serve our will or His. If we use them for the service of our will, then our reward will be gained in this life, but if for His will our reward will be gained in this life and the life to come. If we want to see the increase of His resources we must apply them to the purposes He’s assigned to them. These resources are as follows:

1. Treasure (money): “The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine, declares the LORD of hosts.” Haggai 2:8

   “Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this,” says the LORD of hosts, “if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows.” Malachi 3:10

2. Time (production): “So teach us to number our days, That we may present to You a heart of wisdom.” Psalm 90:12

   “Therefore be careful how you walk, not as unwise men but as wise, making the most of your time, because the days are evil.” Ephesians 5:15-16

   “Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity.” Colossians 4:5

3. Talent (gifts & skills): Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to exercise them accordingly: if prophecy, according to the proportion of his faith; if service, in his serving; or he who teaches, in his teaching; or he who exhorts, in his exhortation; he who gives, with liberality; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.” Romans 12:6-8

“As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.” 1Peter 4:10

Self-Reflection:

Personal Outreach:
“But you, be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.” 2Timothy 4:5

Every person who is a disciple of Jesus Christ has been given the duty of preaching the gospel. This is all about sharing with others who do not know Him the reality of a growing relationship with Him. This can be accomplished by sharing these 3 parts of the gospel message formed from our relationship with Him and growth in our knowledge of Him.

1. Share your testimony: “But set Christ apart as Lord in your hearts and always be ready to give an answer to anyone who asks about the hope you possess.” 1Peter 3:15

2. Share your faith: “What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but does not have works? Can this kind of faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, keep warm and eat well,” but you do not give them what the body needs, what good is it? So also faith, if it does not have works, is dead being by itself.” James 2:14-17

3. Share your knowledge: “Let the message about Christ, in all its richness, fill your lives. Teach and counsel each other with all the wisdom he gives. Sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs to God with thankful hearts.” Colossians 3:16

Self-Reflection:

How often do you share your testimony, faith & knowledge with others?

But I am afraid that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds will be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ. 2Corintians 11:3 (NAS)

Do you read the word because you feel obligated too or because you desire to learn from Him? Do you pray because you’re required too or because you want to talk with Him? Relationship can quickly become religion when our motives shifts from love to law. – Pastor J

For God is the one who provides seed for the farmer and then bread to eat. In the same way, he will provide and increase your resources and then produce a great harvest of generosity in you. Yes, you will be enriched in every way so that you can always be generous. And when we take your gifts to those who need them, they will thank God. 2Corinthians 9:10-11 (NLT)

Are you pleasure seeking or purpose driven? One seeks only what pleases self and the other is a life committed to something more than self. The first consumes resources while the other works their resources. The first will have nothing to show for this life while the other builds reward in this life and the life to come. – Pastor J

Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments and standing before the angel. He spoke and said to those who were standing before him, saying, “Remove the filthy garments from him.” Again he said to him, “See, I have taken your iniquity away from you and will clothe you with festal robes.” Then I said, “Let them put a clean turban on his head.” So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him with garments, while the angel of the LORD was standing by. And the angel of the LORD admonished Joshua, saying, “Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘If you will walk in My ways and if you will perform My service, then you will also govern My house and also have charge of My courts, and I will grant you free access among these who are standing here.’” Zechariah 3:3-7 (NLT)

All the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron; and the whole congregation said to them, “Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would that we had died in this wilderness! Why is the Lord bringing us into this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become plunder; would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?” Numbers 14:2-3

Guard your lips from complaining of the current reality; in doing so you empower your present condition to rule you. Instead in the face of what is opposing you, declare what agrees with your vision, not your opposition. In this way you breathe life into the vision of your heart by faith; where the other will bring death to your vision by fear and doubt. – Pastor J

_For God has not given us a spirit of fear and timidity, but of power, love, and self-discipline._ 2Timothy 1:7 (NLT)

Fear is flesh opposing faith, ignoring opportunity, and placing confidence in the perception of self and not obeying the instruction of God. Don't let fear rule your passage in life, but let faith become the race you run into your destiny. There you will find the wind of His Spirit blowing behind you instead of blowing against you. Favor will always pursue your faith. – Pastor J

‘For in him we live and move and have our being.’ As some of your own poets have said, ‘We are his offspring.’ Acts 17:28 (NIV)

What most of us consider “living life” is just a vain pursuit of happiness. Only when we understand that life is the reflection of the relationship we have with Jesus do we live satisfied. – Pastor J

And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!” Romans 10:14-15 (NIV)

Who's your Kingdom assignment today? There is at least one person God has appointed your life to touch and reach with His love that will reset its course to discover Him in a life changing way. Do not be so distracted with the issues of life that you miss your mission today. We are changing a city by reaching lives, by touching lives with love.

Preach the word of God. Be prepared, whether the time is favorable or not. Patiently correct, rebuke, and encourage your people with good teaching. For a time is coming when people will no longer listen to sound and wholesome teaching. They will follow their own desires and will look for teachers who will tell them whatever their itching ears want to hear. They will reject the truth and chase after myths. 2Timothy 4:2-4 (NLT)

We can be compliant while being defiant. Compliance is not a true indicator of correction. True correction starts with repentance. Without repentance there is no change of heart, and it won't be long before compliance in behavior is overtaken by defiance in attitude. The root of this issue is always pride. – Pastor J

But the wisdom from above is first of all pure. It is also peace loving, gentle at all times, and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and the fruit of good deeds. It shows no favoritism and is always sincere. And those who are peacemakers will plant seeds of peace and reap a harvest of righteousness. James 3:17-18 (NLT)

Careful the fights you invite. Some conflicts are simply unavoidable, others are spiritual; entities that seek to oppose your authority in Christ relying on our timidity of identity. Still there are conflicts we provoke out of the arrogance of our ignorance, and stubbornness of pride. We've been called to a virtue of peace, and peace with wisdom executes authority in all matters to the resolve of God's will not man’s. – Pastor J

For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith, goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love. For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 2Peter 1:5-8 (NIV)

When we are content with what we have or where we are, we shift our discipline to simply maintain it. The problem is we simply do enough to keep what we've gained, but growth always requires another level of discipline; pushing beyond where we are to the desired mark of something more. If we have moved to maintaining, then we have prematurely activated the process of dying. Why would we settle if there is more to be gained? This is a spiritual truth realized through natural means. – Pastor J

he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit… Titus 3:5 (NIV)

Self-righteousness is when we hear truth as correction for others but are deaf to the authority it carries for our own. And when our knowledge becomes the standard by which we judge another rather than knowledge providing a standard for personal change. Self-righteousness creates memory loss of mercy received, and a perception that mercy is no longer a need. – Pastor J

DAY60

But now you are free from the power of sin and have become slaves of God. Now you do those things that lead to holiness and result in eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord. Romans 6:22-23 (NLT)

There is an even more dark and sinister power at work within our being, and it is the nature of sin. It masks itself in the shroud of blame and accusation so as to keep itself from being exposed. It removes the responsibility of our choices and behaviors from personal conscious and places it on others. We are all in need of liberty from the enslavement of this power. No matter the color of ones skin, age, gender, nor ones background; we all need a savior, and there is only one. His name is Jesus Christ. – Pastor J

And not only this, but we also exult in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance; and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope; and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. Romans 5:3-5 (NAS)

You cannot exist in a place of defeat if you're determined to walk victoriously. The stubbornness of your faith will outlast your opposition; this is known as perseverance. – Pastor J

Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. James 1:23-24 (NIV)

The mirror can only reflect the image of who you are. It's what you do when you step away from the mirror that determines the image it reflects the next visit you make to it. – Pastor J

DAY67

Don’t you know that when you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one you obey—whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that, though you used to be slaves to sin, you have come to obey from your heart the pattern of teaching that has now claimed your allegiance. Romans 6:16-17 (NIV)

The Spirit and the word are one. The word is the breath of God and the Spirit is the manifest power and life of the word. The word is not letter, but life. A dilemma in modern Christianity is misunderstanding the word as lessons to be taught rather than a life to be received. We do not conform our lives to the word, but we hear the word, receive the word, believe the word, and then the word transforms our life into the image of Himself. Whatever we believe to be truth we have subjected wholly to its influence, and thus its power to determine what we do, and whatever we do is in obedience to what we believe, and what we believe is predicated on what we have heard. – Pastor J

Stop loving this evil world and all that it offers you, for when you love the world, you show that you do not have the love of the Father in you. For the world offers only the lust for physical pleasure, the lust for everything we see, and pride in our possessons. These are not from the Father. They are from this evil world. And this world is fading away, along with everything it craves. But if you do the will of God, you will live forever. 1John 2:15-17 (NLT)

God's truth is never engineered to fit what we like or want, but what we need. The problem lies in that what we need doesn't satisfy the appetite of what we want because our flesh craves the taste of pleasure, pride and validation; truth is bitter in its taste, but life to the soul that receives it. – Pastor J

Your word is a lamp to my feet And a light to my path. Psalm 119:105 (NAS)

We see in part and therefore we know in part. How then do we make decisions that serve the welfare of a future we cannot see? The existence and outcome of all things regardless of time, trends, or culture depends on our applying the precepts and principles of God rightly judging truth, justice and righteousness. The governance of our life and the course of all things must be the ordinances of God not the ideologies or philosophies of men. – Pastor J

And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose. Romans 8:28 (NAS)

There is more to what God is doing than what you're seeing. The outcome is not predetermined by the onset, but rather the goodness of His love, mercy and grace not only towards you, but all those directly or indirectly connected to you. Our problem occurs when we forge an outcome with only our lives in view, but God is working and moving far beyond our own lives to display the depth, width and breath of His goodness by using a single life. In other words, He is using you to achieve something much bigger than you.

The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of people, who suppress the truth by their wickedness, since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them. For since the creation of the world God’s invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse. Romans 1:18-20 (NIV)

The avoidance of truth does not exempt us from the consequences of a lie. Just because we choose not to know what is true doesn’t mean we won’t be held accountable to the outcome our ignorance produces. CONTINUAL:
9. Tithe regularly (Malachi 3:6-12)
10. Listen only to Christian music (Psalm 32:7, Psalm 42:8, Psalm 119:54)
HOW TO READ THE BIBLE

It is recommended that you read Living by the Book by Howard G. Hendricks but here is an outline of what you will find.

Three Steps to Read the Bible
1. Observation
2. Interpretation
3. Application

OBSERVATION:
When observing the Bible you are looking to answer the question “What do I see?” Look for important:

TERMS
It will be beneficial to have Bible dictionaries and reference materials to look up the terms. Look for names, locations, repeated phrases, themes, etc.

STRUCTURE OF THE PASSAGE
There are two kinds: grammatical structure and literary structure. In grammatical you know the main point of a paragraph, the subject of the sentence, the main verb. The more you understand this the less likely you are to misread a passage. An example would be the Great Commission. Matthew 28:19 says “Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.” There have been pastors that have preached an entire message on the verb ‘go’ but the main verb of this passage (going back to the Greek) is ‘make disciples’. Even having a basic understanding will increase your ability to study the Bible. Literary structure has to do with looking at the entire story (not just a passage at a time), looking for cause and effect, climax and resolution, etc.
LITERARY FORM
The Bible has many different types of writings like narrative, parables, exposition, poetry, proverbs and wisdom literature, and prophecy. Know what you are reading because it will determine how to interpret the message (literally, figuratively, etc.)

ATMOSPHERE
Look at the passage from the writer’s shoes and understand the culture, customs, and feelings in the passage. The Bible is a collection of stories that have occurred. How would you feel if there was an order to kill all the baby boys born or if you saw someone walking on water?

Spend a good deal of time on observation. It will make the other steps easier.

INTERPRETATION:
1. Ask lots of questions
2. Look for the answers
3. Put the answers and questions into a meaningful whole. In order to perform good observation you have torn the passage into many small pieces and questions. Begin to form the answers into a big picture. This picture will be a whole new way of looking at a passage if you break it down correctly.

Example: “For many are called, but few are chosen.” Matthew 22:14

Questions:
Who has called? What have they been called to? Why are they called? What does it mean to be chosen? Why are they chosen? How do they become the chosen? What is the difference between the called and chosen?

APPLICATION:
The Bible is the Living Word so it must be applied to your life or else all this study was in vain. Look for how the passage works for you and for others. This is where you will apply what you have learned to transform your life.
A FEW OTHER NOTES:
1. Read the same passage many times over. The Bible is not an easy read. The point is comprehension not completion.

2. Read an entire book at one time. Then you will get the big picture of what the author is trying to say. If this is too much I would suggest finding a summary of the book so you get the big picture. Too often we think the Bible is a series of good one liners. Every aspect of it is a story.

3. Find a translation of the Bible that works for you. If you are just trying to read the Bible and get main ideas the Message may be good. If you are trying to study the Bible you will need a more formal translation like KJV or NIV.

4. If you want to read the entire Bible during the challenge, read 13 chapters a day.

HOW TO EVANGELIZE

Project Love Loud Evangelism Campaign
“Changing a city by touching lives with active love.”

“But you, be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.” 2Timothy 4:5

Mission: Each person and family making it their personal mission to reach at least one non-believer in a month’s time by demonstrating the love of Jesus Christ in hospitality, serving, giving and sharing. Our goal is to see 100 new believers being discipled and growing at Gateway over the next month.

Strategies of Kindness

- Choose an evening during the week or weekend to invite a neighbor or family friends for dinner and begin dinner with a blessing, and end the evening by inviting them to join you at church on Sunday.

- Pay it forward at any drive through and leave a “touch card” with the cashier to give to the victim of your kindness.
- Bless a waiter/waitress with a great tip and leave a “touch card” for them.
- Buy groceries for a family that may be in need and with the groceries leave a “touch card”.
- Pay for someone’s groceries in front of you at the checkout line and give them a “touch card”.
- Create a bake good basket or another type of basket to give to a neighbor or someone God puts on your heart and provide it with a “touch card”.
- Offer to pick up a family or their children to come to church one Sunday with you.
- Write a random message of encouragement, appreciation or kindness to a friend on facebook, or text message ending with an invitation to join you a church one Sunday.
- If you are one of our online family members invite a friend or family over for brunch one Sunday and invite them to watch the service live online with you.
- If you are one of our online family members schedule a game night at your house with a group of friends and then ask them at the end of the evening to join you online live for Sunday celebration/bible study on Wednesday night.
